Nathan

Johnny are your groups meeting through zoom or in person? when will that change?

2:31 PM

Jonny Damon

all groups are zoom today. no plans to change anytime soon. launching new groups next week that will all meet for 6-10 weeks and we are training/coaching for them to be fully digital for the full time frame unless something drastically changes.

2:31 PM

Nathan

ok great thanks

2:31 PM

Jonny Damon

groups are letting us know if they want to use "free" version and keep things 40 minute or less, or the church will pay for them to share or use a paid account for 2 months.

2:32 PM

Tom Avey

Has anyone figured out how to do a small group with half the people on zoom and half in person?

2:33 PM

Jeremy Wike

@Kevin: great point about not being so inclined to let people "police themselves"!

2:33 PM

Joseph Sowers

I feel like the people who would benefit most from coming back are those who are more at risk because of risk but have most technology hurdles to cross @Joeseeph Sowers: The same issue we're facing. Well said!

I could use a tech person to talk me through setting up various locations in the church for video/audio feed from auditorium.

Here are Kevin's notes -

2:42 PM

Andrew Saunders
thanks Kevin this is really helpful

2:44 PM

Joseph Sowers
The problem I have is that I am the tech guy so it makes it harder to start meeting again in person since it is difficult to run the stream and bring the message

2:45 PM

Joseph Sowers
I thought we could use out fellowship hall since there is are two points of entry - use one for entry and other for exit

2:46 PM

Nathan
Thanks so much Jeremy, Johnny & Kevin.

2:56 PM

Joseph Sowers

2:59 PM
